

The background is a detailed illustration of the interior of the Tabernacle. It shows a large, open space with a high, vaulted ceiling made of woven materials. The walls are covered in heavy, draped curtains. In the center, there is a large, ornate altar or table. People are depicted in various activities: some are standing in groups, some are kneeling in prayer, and others are working with animals, including cows and sheep. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of brown, gold, and red, creating a sense of a sacred and historical environment.

"You are presenting defiled food upon My altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled You?' In that you say, 'The table of the LORD is to be despised.' "And when you present a blind animal for sacrifice, is it not evil? Or when you present a lame or sick animal, is it not evil? So offer it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you, or would he receive you kindly?" says the LORD of armies .... so that you would not kindle fire on My altar for nothing! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD of armies, "nor will I accept an offering from your hand.

HOLY GOD, HOLY PEOPLE

What am I hiding, what do I need to confess, where have I become casual about sin?

1 John 1:7-9

He personally carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we can be dead to sin and live for what is right. By his wounds you are healed.
