

GENESIS

HIS STORY, OUR HISTORY

VOLUME 2

If God asked you to do something,
would you do it?

GENESIS

HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

“Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am,” he replied. Then God said, “Take your son, your only son, whom you love—Isaac—and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you.” Early the next morning Abraham got up and loaded his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. He said to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you.”

Genesis 22:1-19

GENESIS

HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together, Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, “Father?” “Yes, my son?” Abraham replied. “The fire and wood are here,” Isaac said, “but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?” Abraham answered, “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them went on together. When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. But the angel of the Lord called out to him from heaven, “Abraham! Abraham!” “Here I am,” he replied. “Do not lay a hand on the boy,” he said. “Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son.” Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place The Lord Will Provide. And to this day it is said, “On the mountain of the Lord it will be provided.”

Genesis 22:1-19

HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

The angel of the Lord called to Abraham from heaven a second time and said, “I swear by myself, declares the Lord, that because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son, I will surely bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me.” Then Abraham returned to his servants, and they set off together for Beersheba. And Abraham stayed in Beersheba.”

1. Who do you trust?

GENESIS

HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

Obedience is not just doing something hard, it's trusting in the heart of the One that is asking you.

1. Who do you trust?
2. How Do I know if I love Jesus?

“If you love me, you will obey my commandments.”

John 14:15

GENESIS
HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

Obedience to God is not about ticking off laws; it's about living into the story God is telling – even when that story seems hard to follow.

GENESIS

HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

Faith Believes
Obedience Follows
Faith says, "God is Good"
Obedience says, "so I'll Go"

GENESIS

HIS STORY. OUR HISTORY

When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word
What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will, He abides with us still
And with all who will trust and obey

Trust and obey, for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey

GENESIS

- Is God calling you to obey in a specific area—maybe to forgive, to step out, to trust?
 - Is there something you're holding too tightly—an Isaac—that God is asking you to place on the altar?
 - Are you waiting for provision before you move? Could it be that God is waiting for your step of faith?
